

! Important Patient Notice — Change of Registered Provider

 This change takes effect from 1st April 2026

We are writing to inform you of an important administrative change at Longbarn Lane Surgery. As part of a planned restructure, the legal entity registered with the Care Quality Commission (CQC) that operates this practice will be changing. We want to keep our patients fully informed and reassure you that this change has no impact on your care whatsoever.

What Is Changing

PREVIOUS REGISTERED PROVIDER Long Barn Lane Surgery Existing operating entity · CQC registered provider	→	NEW REGISTERED PROVIDER CurMed Alliance Limited Newly incorporated company · CQC registration in progress
--	---	--

What Is NOT Changing

 Your Clinical Team All GPs, nurses, and staff remain the same	 Surgery Location & Hours Same address, same opening times
 Your Medical Records Records transfer seamlessly — no action needed from you	 All Services Offered Every clinic, service, and referral pathway continues
 NHS Provision We remain your fully commissioned NHS GP practice	 Quality & CQC Standards Our commitment to safe, effective care is unchanged

This is purely an administrative and corporate change. Your relationship with Longbarn Lane Surgery, your clinical team, and the high-quality care you receive will continue exactly as before.

You do not need to take any action.

— The Management Team, Longbarn Lane Surgery
